

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Ermal Bliss has dedicated three decades of her life to the loyal and faithful service of the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Ermal has managed her important and unique fiscal job with the seriousness and professional excellence on which her colleagues have come to rely; and,

WHEREAS, Despite the enormous changes that have occurred in Erma's profession throughout the last thirty years, she has shown flexibility and open-mindedness in her ability to keep stride with the ever-changing times; and,

WHEREAS, All State employees are encouraged and inspired by Ermal Bliss's exemplary efforts in giving South Dakotans the good government they deserve; and,

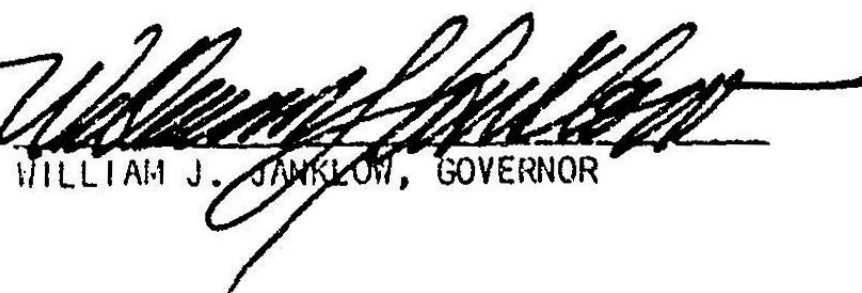

WHEREAS, Ermal is laying aside her duties today so that she can spend more time with her children and grandchildren, travel when she gets the urge, and just thoroughly enjoy a well-deserved retirement:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, April 16, 1982, as in South Dakota, and I further proclaim to all our citizens that South Dakota's true treasure is dedicated, hard-working people like Ermal Bliss.

ERMAL BLISS DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE